Highway 10, near Shelburne, Ontario

Once a reasonably prosperous Service Station on Highway 7, about two hours west of Ottawa.
These days, 2013, business is seriously slow.

On the 3rd Concession, SE of Aurora, Ontario.
During the early 1940s, my sister, Joyce, was friends with Anne Marie McColligan, the girl who lived here. The Porter family lived on the farm across the road from these folks.

Alberta, 1997

On Hwy 7, about an hour west of Ottawa.
The horses are long gone.

I do not remember where in Ontario
I found this abandонned farm - most likely somewhere along Highway 7.
