

Screen Captures
J. G. Porter

Screen doors are designed to keep wee creatures outdoors while allowing soft spring breezes indoors. This is a collection of just such wee creatures who, for one reason or another, met their maker on our screen door. Some, such as this Mayfly, are identified.

(Not recommended for the squeamish,)

Spider

Pollen

Ichneumon Fly